ENTERTAINMENTS.

Hyperion.

Ever since the initial announcement of the appearance of Mr. DeWolf Hopper and his splendid company in that funniest of all comic operas entitled "Dr. Syntax," which will be presented for the time here on next Monday evening, the local management have been fairly besieged with requests from many of our leading theater-goers for "Casey at the Bat," which Mr. Hopper delivered on several special occasions during the original run of the opera at the Broadway theater, New York city. In response to a telegram the comedian wires that he will be pleased to give the recitation. The sale of reserved seats is now open and they are in brisk demand, as the fame of pretty, tuneful "Dr. Syntax," interpreted by the jolly fun-maker and his excellent ensemble of comedians and singers are already well known here.

The "Tribby" craze has not yet reached its zenith. In organizing a company to present this wonderful play, Mr. A. M. Palmer has displayed remarkable judgment. Knowing the importance of the venture, he spared no expense in securing competent people. It will be seen on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings next week. In consequence of the large demands for seats and in response to many requests, Mr. Bunnell has arranged with Mr. A. M. Palmer for a special "Tribby" matinee to be given Wednesday. The sale of seats for the special matinee is now open, as well as for the evening performances.

Grand Opera House.

"The Police Inspector" opened to a large audience yesterday afternoon. The play was composed by Will Wilson, a reporter for the New York Herald, and is a faithful portrayal of the police methods of the great metropolis. It literally bristles with sensational features and the specialties are admirable. The thread of the drama embraces some highly instructive scenes, among which is the interesting process of photographing criminals. The cast is capable throughout. The scenic effects are admirable and comprise some of the best known resorts in and around New York. The look of disgust which flits over the countenance of Isaac, the greedy, grasping money lender, when he finds himself beaten at his own game by "Gillie Gilder," the pert young secretary of Banker Vandevere, is something wonderful to behold, and the "breaks" made by Hiram Chessman, the awestruck ruralist, are of the kind that keep an audience in a continual uproar. The company is direct from New York and promises to establish an enviable reputation.

During the action of the play specialties are introduced by Lillian Caffet, Thomas Meegan, Will Spaulding, Harry Leonard, Willie Hartford and Julia Grey. Mr. Spaulding introduced for the first time in this city the leading New York song, "Tribby," which he sang to the delight of the audience. There will be a performance this afternoon and evening, for which there has already been a very large sale of seats.

"Hands Across the Sea" will be the attraction on Monday and Tuesday evenings next week. There will be matinees on Monday and Tuesday. It is a melodrama, but without the over-dramatic situations that characterize most plays of this class. The story is interesting and holds the attention of the audience closely, while the serious part is pleasantly relieved by an entertaining strain of light comedy well brought out by the company. The staging is realistic and attractive, but not so prominent that the play is lost in the scenery. Good, strong and witty lines, dramatic situations, a swift movement of events, admirable stage setting and a well balanced company join to make a performance that is very enjoyable.

Poll's Wonderland Theater.

The two Donazzettas will present to-night for the last time at the Wonderland the ludicrously funny mock imitation that large delegations of Heptasophs and local Elks laughed over so uncontrollably last night. The Elks were on hand specially to hear Allen May's new song, "Fallen by the Wayside," which was put on with beautiful dramatic effects in special honor of them. By special request Mr. May will reproduce this song to-night. Others on the bill who will be parted with regretfully are the pretty Washburn sisters, Harris and Walters, Clayton, Jenkins and Jasper, Daisy Mayer and her pickaninnies, the little Ferguson brothers, and Griffin and Bryce. Next week Harry Leclair and George Leslie will present their clever satire on the latest society craze entitled "That Woman," a most interesting satirical skit. With them comes an unusually strong supporting company.

On Memorial Day.

Nathan Hale camp and the pupils from Eaton school will go to East Rock park in the morning of May 30 and exercises will be held at the Soldiers' monument. The pupils will sing. There will be an address by a speaker to be chosen later and a salute will be fired. In the evening at the Grand opera house a meeting will be held. The board of education and the officers of the Governor's Foot Guard and Naval reserve will be invited to attend. The music will be by Madame Certei, Miss Mary Sullivan and Rev. A. P. Miller will deliver an address.

Medical Journals Suggest Its Use.

The many who live better than others and enjoy life more are the ones who more rapidly adapt the best products to their physical needs. It is from this large class you can learn of the great good to be derived from the use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. It is presented in a most acceptable form, pleasant to the taste and perfect in action. It has given satisfaction to millions. It is approved and prescribed by practicing physicians and is used in all hospitals and sanitariums. In dyspepsia, indigestion, liver and urinary complaints, and the illness women suffer from, it is a positive cure. For constipation, nervousness, or loss of sleep, it is unequalled. Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is so generally prescribed now that all dealers in medicine sell it.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Several Matters of Minor Importance Discussed.

The regular fortnightly meeting of the board of education was held last evening. Messrs. Betts, Manson and Whitney were absent. It was announced that W. F. Gilbert was the successful bidder for the contract of supplying coal to the schools for the ensuing year.

The building committee reported that it had been decided that no tiling would be necessary for the George street school, which would lessen the cost of the building by $3,000. The committee recommended that the money be applied to adding another story over the engine room in the Boardman Manual Training High school, which would give sufficient additional room for the class which will enter the school next fall.

President Avis opposed this recommendation on the ground that the proposed room would be too warm to be comfortable, being so near the boiler and engine rooms. The matter was laid on the table.

A resolution was passed to the effect that the several street railway companies ask their motormen and conductors to have their cars under control when passing public school buildings.

A communication was received from Charles Weldig, chairman of the joint Memorial day committee of the G. A. R. posts, inviting the members of the board to occupy a box at the exercises on the evening of May 29 at the Hyperion. It was voted to accept the invitation and attend in a body if possible.

Attorney John C. Gallagher appeared before the board and asked the board to give their approval of a bill which is to be presented to the legislature. It is an act relating to the adjustment, correction and settlement of taxes and assessments due the town, city and school district of New Haven. Under the general statute the tax commission is able only to abate the taxes of those who are poor and unable to pay. No provision is made for cases of errors, such as have crept into the tax records through the period of eleven years during which the books were not audited. This act provides that the commission can use its own discretion. The act was approved.

The matter of the opposition to Hemingway's soap factory, which is to be changed from its present location on Union street to a site opposite the Fair street school, was then discussed. It was the opinion of the board that they should be governed by the board of health in this matter and not to take any action until it could be proved that the factory was truly a nuisance. It was referred to the committee on buildings.

The class of 1885, H. H. S., met in the rooms of the Sons of Veterans last evening. W. DeF. Dickinson presided. It was voted to hold a reunion on June 7. The committee will hold another meeting on next Friday night at 101 Orange street.

COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS.

The Committee on Nominations will meet in Room 10 and 11, City Hall, on Tuesday, May 28, 1895, at 8 p. m., for the purpose of considering the petitions of various persons for appointment as special constables.

All persons interested in any of the foregoing are hereby notified to present and be heard thereon without further notice.

Per order,

Next week Harry Leclair and George Leslie will present their clever satire on the latest society craze entitled "That Woman," a most interesting satirical skit. Vol. VI. in Crowell's Library of Economics and Politics. 12mo. cloth, with illustrations and index, $1.75.

Dr. Wines, who is well known as a thoroughly practical and trustworthy investigator of the question of the reformation of criminals, has in this volume made a most valuable contribution to this subject.

The book is stimulating, convincing, judicious in tone and eminently practical. There is probably no book in existence which so completely covers this special field.

It will be indispensable to all who are in any way interested in the subject.
